CLIMATE
 Palmetto Bluff has a semi-tropical climate with typically mild winters & warm summers.

WELCOME

Just 25 minutes off I-95. I-95 to Hwy. 278 East (8 miles) to right on SC 170 and follow it to the traffic circle (4 miles) to May River Road.

WHAT IS PALMETTO BLUFF?

Nestled in the lush Lowcountry of South Carolina between Hilton Head and Savannah, and set amid 20,000 acres along the May River in Bluffton, SC, Palmetto Bluff is a luxurious, one-of-a-kind resort for the avid outdoor lover.

HISTORY

In 1902, Richard T. Wilson, Jr., a wealthy New York banker, purchased 10,000 acres of land along the May River and over the next 20 years, he doubled the size of his property and name it "Palmetto Bluff." The Bluff was the Wilsons' winter home and a place to relax, hunt, and ride.

WATER VIEWS

The natural beauty of the May River, with its lush marshlands, mangroves, and estuaries, provides a stunning backdrop for Palmetto Bluff's water-centric activities.

THE INSIDER'S GUIDE TO PALMETTO BLUFF DINING OPTIONS

YOU'VE GOT A LOT OF OPTIONS FOR DINING AND DRINKS.

THE OCTAGON PORCH & BAR

At The Inn, The Octagon Porch and Bar serve a Southern-inflected menu inside and on the porch. Breakfast includes an eggs benedict made with homemade cornmeal English muffins and a southern ham. The fried chicken sandwich on the lunch menu is a crowd favorite.

THE RIVER HOUSE

Comforting and elegant, The River House showcases a curated assembly of seasonal ingredients and vegetables served alongside thoughtfully sourced meats and seafood. Bespoke cocktails and curate wines add to the experience, creating unforgettable nights of Lowcountry dining.

THE CANTEEN

The Canteen is the perfect spot in Moreland Village to pick up a cup of coffee or breakfast sandwich in the morning and a homemade panini, a wrap, a salad or snacks in the afternoon. Take it to go or enjoy an afternoon on the Canteen's open-air porch with a glass of wine or a beer from a local brewery.

RT'S MARKET

Named for the merchant Richard Thornton Wilson Sr., the father of the early 20th century owner of Palmetto Bluff, RT's Market is your neighborhood general store, and so much more. Here you can pick up your morning newspaper and coffee, top of your gas tank, and buy milk and bread for the next day's breakfast or the ingredients for preparing a gourmet meal for a house full of guests. RT's Market offers a creative selection of high-quality products – an extensive wine selection, gourmet items, seafood and meats and gifts.

BUFFALO'S

The gathering place for all – and a community favorite – here at Palmetto Bluff. The corner café sitting across from our chapel in Wilson Village, Buffalo's offers its patrons picturesque views of the May River as they enjoy a menu featuring everything from market-fresh salads, Italian sandwiches and pastas, pastries and handmade local gelato to wines by the glass or bottle and a variety of signature cocktails and local craft beers.

FLAME

Expect mobile mozzarella from the folks behind Flame. Artisanal pizzas, Italian comfort foods, and salads are Specialties Of The Truck – a vintage 1950's model stationed in Moreland Village. Come for the Woo-Fired lasagna, stay for the S'mores Focaccia.

MELT

If you wander along the banks of the beautiful May River, you'll find Melt, in Wilson Village. Featuring 12 'signature southern ice cream' flavors, plus shakes, sundaes, floats, candy, homemade cookies, brownies and more, this friendly and inviting sweets shop is almost impossible to resist.
